Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 5, 2024

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love."

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

Reflections

Baptism Candle By Paul Turner

Newly baptized persons each receive a lighted candle. The candle signifies that they have been enlightened by Christ and are to walk in his light until they meet him in heaven.

Any candle will do. It may be a plain taper, or it may bear elaborate decoration. Some parishes obtain special baptism candles fashioned in the style of the Easter candle. Others invite families to decorate their own.

The baptism candle is lighted from the Easter candle, which burns at every Mass throughout the Easter season and at every baptism and funeral throughout the year. Whenever baptism takes place, the Easter candle will stand lighted before the ceremony begins. Shortly after a person is baptized, the priest or deacon holds the Easter candle or at least touches it and says to the newly baptized, "Receive the light of Christ."

Someone lights the baptism candle. Usually a godparent does this, but a parent or another family member may do it for a newly baptized infant. The father and godfather are specifically mentioned as possible helpers.

The priest or deacon then explains the significance of the candle as it is entrusted to the parents and godparents of an infant or handed by the godparent to a newly baptized adult. These new Christians are enlightened by Christ. They are to walk always as children of the light, keeping the flame of faith alive within them. When the Lord comes at the end of time, the baptized will go out to meet him, just as the wise virgins, torches alight, went out to meet the bridegroom in Jesus's parable.

Many people keep their candles and relight them for prayer at home on the anniversary of their baptisms.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Written by THE
DISCIPLE

Acts 10:25-36, 34-35, 44-48 | 1 Jn 14:23 | Jn 15:9-17

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"As the Father loves me, so I also love you ... If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love." We don't earn God's love – it is freely given to us. But only by loving God and others, and by keeping his commandments, do we remain in that love as our source of life and joy. It becomes the air we breathe, and the breath we exhale. Today's second reading and Gospel reassure us of the love of God, but also give us a few specifics for how to live in and remain in that love – self-sacrifice and prayer. We are to love one another as Jesus loves us, and we know what that looks like from his life: feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, forgiving one another, and more. Living in the way Jesus instructs is not simply completing a checklist of things to do, however. It's a way of life – to live in God's love and to demonstrate his love with our outward actions. When we do so, we are helping bring about the kingdom in a very real way. It's not complicated. We begin by acting in accordance with the truth that the person in front of us is loved by God.

GO EVANGELIZE*PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The message of the Gospel is countercultural and upends many convictions about what is true, good, and beautiful. What Jesus says can seem upside down to us, as it certainly did to the people of his time! Even the disciples, who walked with Jesus, didn't fully grasp all of what Jesus had told them until after he had been raised from the dead and appeared in their midst and shared food with them. And even after they understood, they didn't live it perfectly, nor do we. The things of this world we can mistakenly think are important get in the way of loving as we ought, and they shape our behavior and vision of the world. To counter that, we must focus in on what the Lord is saying and what that demands of us. What exactly that will look like in our lives is the provenance of prayer. Ask for God's help in loving all those we come across, even (and especially) those we may not particularly care for. He will answer our prayers and show us the way.

WITNESS Think of someone you know personally or whom you know of, who is particularly difficult to like. Create a plan to love them this week – either through praying for them, or interacting with them in a charitable, selfless way.

Annual Catholic Appeal 2024

DIOCESE OF BROOKLYN

Each year Saint Anastasia and the Diocese of Brooklyn engage in the Annual Catholic Appeal which supports Catholic programs throughout Brooklyn and Queens and affects the lives of countless individuals and families living in our neighborhoods in addition to benefiting our parish. The Annual Catholic Appeal makes possible those programs that no one parish could do alone.

Why is your participation important?

As followers of Jesus here at Saint Anastasia, we understand our responsibility to our parish implies a responsibility to the diocese which unites us together with the entire Catholic community as the one body of Christ.

When one part of the body does not participate, the entire body suffers and makes it harder to function. Likewise, your participation in this Appeal, over and above your regular Sunday offering, will determine the ability of Saint Anastasia to faithfully support the mission of Christ while also providing the needed support we receive as one parish, which is part of the larger Catholic Church.

Please join us to respond as the Church of Christ called to Communion, Participation & Mission in Brooklyn and Queens through a pledge to the Annual Catholic Appeal today at AnnualCatholicAppeal.org or text DONATE to 917-336-1255

The Annual Catholic Appeal seeks to raise a minimum of $8 million to provide programs and ministries throughout the Diocese and support the local efforts of parishes like ours.

The goal for Saint Anastasia
$107,734.

Once we exceed our goal, we will then receive 100% of all funds raised above this figure directly back to our parish.

For questions regarding the Annual Catholic Appeal, or to schedule an appointment to make a gift to the parish, please contact the Parish Office
718-631-4454

Called to

Love and Serve

Sixth Sunday of Easter

This week's Gospel follows last week's reading of the vine and branches from the same chapter of St. John's Gospel, Chapter 15. In Chapters 14-17, known as the Farewell Discourse, Jesus addresses His disciples after the Last Supper and before his arrest and crucifixion to prepare them for what was to come. He reasserts His unity with God and the believers and gives them His final instructions on what to do when He leaves them.

Social media was in the news again recently when lawmakers signed a law banning TikTok, a Chinese-owned video-sharing platform unless the company is sold within a year. Putting aside the political and national security reasons this law was passed, it is astonishing to see the number of users web-based social media companies amassed in just a few decades. There are six social media networks with over one billion monthly active users on each platform. While active users may not represent unique individuals, it is still astonishing to see numbers this high. According to the Pew Research Center, many Americans use these platforms not only for entertainment and news but also to connect and engage with others. I watched a young Australian Catholic, active in her church and Youth Choir, explain on a YouTube video that she loves TikTok and is almost addicted to it because it allows her to connect and share with others. This is not to say that these platforms are inherently evil; their number of monthly active users and immense popularity point to a worldwide hunger for people to know that they belong, are heard, and loved. This is the void that many feel when seeking fulfillment by connecting and sharing with others on social platforms.

Have they heard? God is Love! Did anyone tell them?

The Sunday readings chosen by the Church for today remind us of God's gift and sacrifice for us. St. Peter tells us that Jesus dwells with us, and God pours out His love and the Holy Spirit on the people of all nations. He desires that we remain in Him as He remains in us. The readings are glorious and worthy of reflection. Make time to read and carefully examine the assertions, prophecies, and commandments Jesus gives His disciples and followers in them. St. John says, "Everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God." (1 John 4:7). In his Gospel, he adds that we remain in God's love and experience complete joy when we keep His commandments. People must know that God loves them individually, wants to abide in them, and brings them complete joy.

This Thursday, May 9th, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. It is a joyful celebration marking our Lord Jesus' completion of God's promise of salvation for us, His ascension into heaven, and the gifting of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Where is God calling you to bring His kingdom and the Good News?
