Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 19, 2025

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servers, “Do whatever he tells you.” Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, “Fill the jars with water.” So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.” So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.” Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him. — John 2:1-11

Lotus seeds root and sprout in mud that is often thick with debris and root tangles, yet mud is rich in nutrients that have been there for years. We tend to look for something to take us out of, change, or make sense of our "mud". But what if the mud is where God is? What if the mud is the place where grace has been stored for years, waiting for us to stop fighting the mud and grow from it?

This retreat will explore how, like the lotus, we have the ability to rise above the challenges of life to bring forth something pure and beautiful.

FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 62:1-5 | 1 Cor 12:4-11 | Jn 2:1-11

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Pop quiz: What was the name of the bride and groom at the wedding in today's Gospel? If you're unsure, you're not alone; the bridegroom is mentioned only in passing and the names of the newlyweds are not recorded at all in Scripture. Instead, the most prominent man in the account is Jesus; the most prominent woman is his mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. In light of today's first reading, this apparent omission begins to make sense. "As a young man marries a virgin," the prophet Isaiah writes, "your Builder shall marry you." Jesus is the "Builder" of the universe, the Word through whom all things were created. Mary, whom Jesus calls "Woman," stands as a representative of the Church. This image of God as Bridegroom of his people, common throughout the Old Testament, thus takes on its full significance in Christ. He is the Bridegroom who will "wed" himself to his Church irrevocably when he offers his life for her on the cross.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It is clear that Scriptures give us many "stories behind the stories" - a sort of "visible invisible" as we see with today's Gospel of the Wedding at Cana. What we think is happening, and who we assume are the main characters, are important and yet also diminished beside the infinite and eternal, self-sacrificing love of God. How much of our own lives contains such stories of God's immense and great love for us, behind the scenes that play out day to day? The Lord gives us all good gifts, and he uses them to help us see, know, understand and love him. The smallest moment, or the most important detail, may not be recorded or remembered, but the generosity and irrevocable love of God will never fade and will always sustain us.

JOURNAL

Although God's love for us never diminishes, we sometimes struggle to maintain the enthusiasm of our earliest encounters with him. This week, create a spiritual "photo album" you can use to remind yourself of God's blessings in your life. Recall pivotal moments in your spiritual life, write them down in a notebook, and return to them with praise and thanksgiving whenever you feel your heart drifting from the Lord.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Sunday marked the end of the Christmas liturgical season. We now turn to "Ordinary Time," a period that encompasses the weeks not explicitly associated with the four major liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. During Ordinary Time, we focus entirely on the mystery of Christ through various Gospel readings rather than specific aspects of that mystery, which are emphasized during the other liturgical seasons. Ordinary Time consists of two segments within the liturgical year: The First Segment begins on the Monday following the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. It continues until the day before Ash Wednesday, marking the beginning of Lent. The Second Segment resumes on the Monday after Pentecost and lasts until the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent. In total, the Ordinary Time period is thirty-three or thirty-four weeks, depending on the liturgical year.

The phrase "Ordinary Time" can be misleading since the events celebrated in the liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter forever changed the life and future of mankind. Today's Readings reflect the changes. In the first Reading from Isaiah 62, the prophet speaks of God's unwavering love for His people, promising restoration and joy. In the Gospel Reading from Saint John, the Wedding at Cana illustrates how Christ came to save us and provide for us. In the second Reading from the letter to the Corinthians, Saint Paul lists the different gifts the Holy Spirit bestows upon us, the followers of Christ.

With the Wedding at Cana, the Gospel according to John, begins a series of "signs", miracles, and wondrous works of Jesus. The narrative reveals that Mary, Jesus, and his disciples were invited to the wedding - it was commonplace for all the townspeople to be invited to a wedding in a small town such as Cana of Galilee. Their presence highlights the importance of shared experiences and community, and Jesus' transforming water into wine reveals His divine nature and care for human needs. It illustrates how God desires to enrich our lives, filling them with joy and abundance, especially in times of need. Mary, noticing the distress of the hosts, turned to her Son. This moment reveals Mary's deep concern for others and her role as an intercessor, prompting Jesus to act. In response to her request, Jesus initially seems hesitant, stating, "My hour has not yet come" — John 2:4. Yet, Mary instructs the servants to do whatever He tells them, demonstrating her unwavering faith in Jesus' ability to fill the need. This interaction sets the stage for the miracle that follows, where Jesus transforms six stone water jars into the finest wine.

As we reflect further on this miracle rich in symbolism, we also recognize that marriage is a sacred mystery that includes the presence of Christ, just as the banquet at Cana did. By inviting Jesus into our relationships, we are opening ourselves to His blessings and joy. The transformation of water into wine is a reminder that faith can bring about profound change, even in our moments of greatest need.
